The Watertown Family YMCA's YOUTH EMPOWERMENT PROGRAM provides internships funded by the Jefferson County Youth Bureau enabling the YMCA to reach and empower those youth who have historically been under-served in their communities.

This initiative offers the ability to collaborate with experienced Y staff as well as provide greater access to essential resources and life skills such as:

- Skill development
- Workforce training
- Job placement

Our mission is to open doors to new opportunities and set local youth on a path to success in their future careers.

If you're passionate about making a difference, join the YMCA team! Together, we can create brighter futures for our youth & shape the future of our community!
